Our Story

Since 1917, we've been focused on helping hard-working industries at the heart of U.S. infrastructure run safe operations and protect their employees and their businesses.

Since the beginning, we've focused on understanding what makes the industries we serve tick and what it's like to work in the streets, worksites and operations that are integral to their success. The foundation of BITCO's business is built around creating broad coverages and specialized services to address the distinct risks and day-to-day concerns of these niche industries.

We pair our expertise and more than 100 years of insurance experience with a level of personal service not commonly found in the insurance industry. This puts us in the unique position of working collaboratively with our clients to help them identify ways to protect their employees and provide financial security for their livelihoods.

We make a long-term commitment to our clients' success.
